Matthew 18:12-17 (NIV)

[12] What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off?

[13] And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off.

[14] In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should be lost.

[15] If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.

[16] But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.'

[17] If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.
