Romans 8:35-39 (NIV)

<sup>[35]</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

<sup>[36]</sup> As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

<sup>[37]</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

<sup>[38]</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

<sup>[39]</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Philippians 1:6 (NIV)

<sup>[6]</sup> ...being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

Romans 5:10 (NIV)

<sup>[10]</sup> For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

Hebrews 6:4-6 (NIV)

<sup>[4]</sup> It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit,

<sup>[5]</sup> who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age,

<sup>[6]</sup> if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.
