APPLICATION MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE

1 Corinthians 13:4-7 (NIV)

^[4] Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.

^[5] It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

^[6] Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

^[7] It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love gives the other person the benefit of the doubt

Love looks for the most generous explanation for the other person's behavior

Love chooses trust over suspicion

EXPECTATIONS ----- EXPERIENCE

We decide what goes in the gap

EXPECTATIONS – ASSUME THE WORST – EXPERIENCE

EXPECTATIONS – BELIEVE THE BEST – EXPERIENCE

TIP: In healthy relationships, both parties go to ridiculous lengths to believe the BEST

WHEN YOU CAN'T CHOOSE TO TRUST, YOU MUST CHOOSE TO CONFRONT.
Matt. 18:15-17

CONFRONTING: Asking for an explanation and assuming there's a good one

Luke 6:31 (NIV)

^[31] Do to others as you would have them do to you.
