Jesus
Consumer or a Follower

Mark 8:32-33 (NIV)

^[32] He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

^[33] But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" he said. "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

Matthew 19:27 (NIV)

^[27] Peter answered him, "We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?"

Matthew 26:6-9 (NIV)

^[6] While Jesus was in Bethany in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper,

^[7] a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.

^[8] When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked.

^[9] "This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor."

John 12:4-8 (NIV)

^[4] But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

^[5] "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages."

^[6] He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

Matthew 26:10-15 (NIV)

^[10] Aware of this, Jesus said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me.

^[11] The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me.

^[12] When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

^[13] I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

^[14] Then one of the Twelve--the one called Judas Iscariot--went to the chief priests

^[15] and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins.

God's hand can't be FORCED; His will can't be PREVENTED

Matthew 27:1-8 (NIV)

^[1] Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people came to the decision to put Jesus to death.

^[2] They bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

^[3] When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders.

^[4] "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood." "What is that to us?" they replied. "That's your responsibility."

^[5] So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

^[6] The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money."

^[7] So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners.

^[8] That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

God's hand can't be FORCED;
His will can't be PREVENTED

There will be a WAR in your Heart-my Way or GOD'S WAY?

Defining moment
This will say whose you are

I have moved from Consumer to Follower

When your little Faith intersects with God's Faithfulness –
God becomes alive to you.

God, I want what YOU want
more than what I want.

I want to want what You want
more than what I want

Blessed is the one who chooses to do the Will of God, rather than attempting to impose his will on God
