John 11:1-16 (ESV)

[1] Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

[2] It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill.

[3] So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill."

[4] But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of Man may be glorified through it."

[5] Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

[6] So when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

[7] Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

[8] The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?"

[9] Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world."

[10] But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

[11] After saying these things, he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him."

[12] The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

[13] Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought he meant taking rest in sleep.

[14] Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus has died, [15] and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

[16] So Thomas, called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

[17] Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

[18] Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, [19] and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother.

[20] So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, he went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house.

[21] Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

[22] But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.”

[23] Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

[24] Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”

[25] Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, [26] and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?”

[27] She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world.”

[28] When she said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in private, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

[29] And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him.

[30] Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him.

[31] When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

[32] Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

[33] When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled.

[34] And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

[35] Jesus wept.

[36] So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

[37] But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?"
